The Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) is a premier national Board under the Ministry of Education. The mandate of CBSE is to conduct Secondary and Senior Secondary School Examination in respect of CBSE Affiliated schools. The Affiliation is granted to schools on fulfilment of various conditions prescribed in the CBSE Affiliation bye-laws.

The Board vide Circular no. 03 dated 2020 has issued an advisory wherein it is mentioned that some schools whose application is either under process, or rejected by the Board, or they have not applied for Affiliation at all, are misleading the parents in particular and public in general, by displaying messages at the school's Board, prominent locations and on the school's website showing messages such as "to be affiliated with CBSE", "CBSE Pattern", "likely to be affiliated with CBSE", "running under the aegis of CBSE", "CBSE course/Curriculum", "CBSE registered" etc. It has come to the notice that despite clear directions of the Board, a number of schools are indulging in nefarious activities thereby misleading the stakeholders.

As per provision under clause 14.2.2 of CBSE Affiliation bye-laws, the CBSE does not allow non-affiliated schools' to present the candidates to the Board examinations. Hence parents' seeking admission of their ward in CBSE affiliated schools are requested to check the Affiliation status of the school on this office's website.
